

MEDIA ADVISORY FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Discover Rodin through the world of music!

Calgary, AB (November 1, 2004) – In a unique collaboration, Glenbow Museum and Honens have partnered to present a series of lectures and performances during Glenbow's current special exhibition, Rodin: A Magnificent Obsession, Sculpture from the Iris and B. Gerald Cantor Foundation. Rodin: A Magnificent Obsession is the first Canadian venue on its North American tour featuring such masterpieces as The Kiss, The Thinker, and The Age of Bronze. Boldly redefining and even defying tradition, Rodin expressed the vitality of the human spirit, capturing movement and depth of emotion.

Rodin's Music – A Terrific Tuesday Talk program

November 2, 10:30 a.m.

Included with museum admission

Discover Rodin through the world of music! Pianist Alessandra Maria Ammara, 2000 Honens Laureate, will explore the common threads between Rodin's work and the music of his day.

Alessandra will conclude this Terrific Tuesday Talk with a free one-hour Community Concert at noon in the Burlington Resources Theatre at Glenbow Museum.

Make to Music – A First Thursday event

November 4, 5:00 p.m.

Included with museum admission

Sketch your own musically inspired masterpiece to the sounds of pianist Alessandra Maria Ammara, 2000 Honens Laureate, and discover Rodin's world with commentary on the music of Rodin's time and music inspired by themes in the sculptor's work.

Learn more about Glenbow Museum by calling (403) 268-4100 or visit www.glenbow.org for details on hours, admission prices, and further programming details.

-30-

Media contact:
Tanis Booth, Communications Specialist
Glenbow Museum
(403) 268-4246
tbooth@glenbow.org